

SAY PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION WILL BE LONG STRUGGLE

Gavel Bangs at 11:30 on 1st Unbanned Democratic Convention Since 1932

STEVENSON TO APPEAR

Stevenson Sentiment Continues To Build Up as Delegates Assemble

By Bob Considine
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

CHICAGO, July 21—(INS)—The gavel bangs today at 11:30 a. m. (EDT) to open the first unbanned Democratic National Convention since 1932 with two strong coalitions battling for control of the party. A long struggle for the presidential nomination is widely predicted.

Before the fighting starts, the traditional opening ceremonies must be taken care of, and these include the appearance of the convention's "mystery man"—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois.

Despite his persistent cry that he doesn't want the presidential nomination, Stevenson sentiment continued to build up as the delegates assembled, its intensity increasing with the probability of a deadlock among the avowed contenders.

Roaring floor fights tonight or tomorrow are expected over the seating of anti-Truman delegations from Texas and Mississippi and a proposed new rule requiring Southerners opposed to the "Fair Deal" to take an oath of party loyalty.

Pitted against each other on the Dixie issues are factions supporting Vice-President Alben Barkley and Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia, on one side, and the "liberal" elements backing W. Averell Harriman and Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, on the other.

The intense rivalry is being described as combat between the Democrats' "gold guard" and liberal wings, similar in some respects to the recent fierce struggle in the GOP between Eisenhower and Taft legions.

Stevenson strides to the rostrum of the International Amphitheatre after these preliminaries:

National Chairman Frank McKinney's call to order, an invocation by Samuel Cardinal Stritch, an address by Mayor Martin H. Kennelly of Chicago, and the official convention call read by Mrs. Dorothy Vredenburg, secretary of the National Committee.

Later on the opening session's program are addresses by Sen. Paul H. Douglas of Illinois, a Kefauver supporter but himself a dark horse; Jacob M. Arvey, National Committeeman for Illinois, and Mrs. Elizabeth A. Conkey, Illinois National Committeewoman.

The original agenda specified "adoption of temporary rules and order of business" and this could explode the Dixie bombshell. But a last-minute change to delay the showdown eliminated all but the speechmaking.

Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, an organizer of the Northern fight to compel Southern fealty to the party nominee and platform, labored far into the night devising battle strategy for the eventual showdown.

On the eve of the convention, Russell, first Southerner in years who has had a serious chance for the presidential nomination, accused Kefauver and Harriman of "gang-

COMMITMENT SHOULD SHOW OFFICER'S NAME

Notation Regarding Mental Examination, Should Not Appear There, However

ON SEPARATE NOTE

DOYLESTOWN, July 21—Justices of the Peace were urged by Bucks County prison warden, Earl D. Handy, to place name of person arresting a defendant on the commitment. Mr. Handy, who spoke at a session of Bucks Co. Magistrates' Association, here, Thursday, informed that there should not be placed on the commitment recommendation for a mental examination.

"Attach a note with your suggestion for a mental examination to the commitment, but do not make that notation on the commitment because it is not legal," Warden Handy said. "The name of the person making the arrest should be placed on the commitment but so many Squires forget to put it on."

Warden Handy said a 2,000 electric voltage cable has been placed on the top of the stone jail wall which will set off a series of alarms when touched. About ten acres of ground is being cultivated for garden purposes and the average prison population is 75 persons. "We cannot accommodate more than 100," said the Warden.

Samuel Linington, Langhorne Manor, a former constable for more than a quarter of a century, and now a J. P., was welcomed as a new member by president, Fred L. Bickel, Warminster, Treasurer Lawrence W. Kepner, Applebachville, reported $38.96 on hand.

Announcement was made that a joint dinner meeting with Northampton Magistrates' Association will be held Aug. 28 at Crystal Jade Inn, near Bath. Plans for the annual clambake were discussed.

FIND AGED MAN'S BODY IN WOODS; MISSING 9 DAYS

IDENTIFIED BY RING

Son Informs Coroner Father Left His Home On July 11th

KINTNERSVILLE, July 21—The body of Benjamin Powers, 80, was found here Friday in a woods. He had been missing nine days. Powers left the Indian Rock Hotel on River road, which is owned by his son, Robert, to go for a walk. His body was found in a heavy thicket on the farm of Louis Jaffe, in Nockamixon township, about a mile and a half from the hotel.

His son identified him by a signet ring. The son told Coroner Russell J. T. Ferris and State Trooper George Ebnis his father left the porch of the hotel at 5 p. m., July 11, to take a walk seeking relief from the heat.

Coincidentally, the last man to see him alive at the hotel, Howard Sutton, of Riegelsville, was one of the searchers who found the body.

For three days volunteer firemen from Milford, N. J., Upper Black Eddy, Riegelsville, and Ottsville, and Boy Scouts from Upper Bucks county searched the area for the aged man.

At 10 a. m., Sutton, with Joseph Brethoff and George Carr, all volunteer firemen, spotted the body in the deep thicket. They summoned the coroner and State police. Powers had been a paperhanger and decorator in the Olney section of Philadelphia for more than 50 years.

Slight Possibility of A Weather Break Tomorrow

PHILADELPHIA, July 21—(INS)—A "slight" possibility of a break tomorrow in Eastern Pennsylvania's nine-day heat wave was the only hope held out today to sweltering, limp sufferers.

The mercury was expected to reach the 90's again today, and humidity was expected to remain high. The temperature hit 95 yesterday before a heavy thundershower brought it down to 78, but the storm brought little relief.

Showers were predicted today for the third successive day, and a cold front from the West, according to the weather man, may or may not reach the stifling area tomorrow.

During the nine-day furnace blast, the temperature failed to reach 90 only one day—last Thursday—when the day's high was 89.

Ill for Two Weeks, Mrs. Carmine Tiberi Dies

WORK OF BUILDING GIANT U. S. STEEL PLANT HALTED TODAY BY STRIKE OF 1500 LABORERS; 9,000 OUT OF WORK

Pickets at Three Gates and Workers Make No Attempt to Pass Picket Lines; Jurisdictional Dispute Reported as Cause

All work in the construction of the huge U. S. Steel plant in Falls Township, came to a halt this morning, when approximately 1500 laborers of Local No. 57 A. F. L. remained off the job. The strike of the 1500 laborers prevented approximately 9,000 construction workers from continuing their employment in the erection of the giant plant.

Pickets were at three of the four main entrances at 11 o'clock this morning, the fourth entrance is open only at morning and night to permit the entrance and exit of employees.

There were 75 pickets at Gate one; 35 at gate two and 10 at gate three this morning.

CROYDON HUSBAND HAS COURT-TO-COURT CASE

New Law Permits Wife To Attach Husband in Bucks County

IS EXPECTANT MOTHER

A Croydon father-to-be, who is separated from his wife, appeared in Quarter Sessions Court, here Friday, under the new Pennsylvania Uniform Support Law which is a court-to-court basis for domestic relations cases.

Judge Edwin H. Satterthwaite, after hearing testimony in the non-support case of Raymond S. Mason, 509 Elm ave., Croydon, continued the hearing until the notes of testimony have been transcribed and will be certified to New York.

Under the new Penna. Uniform Support Law, which became effective in May, 1951, two Bucks county husbands, one whose wife lives in Connecticut and the other in Long Island, were summoned into domestic relations court.

Formerly the prosecutrix or wife, would have had to appear here in court to testify. Yesterday records of her testimony were the sole evidence used by the District Attorney's Office.

Mrs. Lillian Mason, 213 Woodfield rd., West Hempstead, L. I., N. Y., who did not appear to testify, through a certified record from Nassau County Court, Mineola, N. Y., gave evidence that she and the defendant were married Oct. 22, 1951, in Elkhon, Md. She expects a baby this month. She wants $35 a week support.

Former Newtown Man To Be Buried There July 24

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 21—A former resident of Newtown, Pa., Clarence T. Galloway, 53, husband of Mrs. Vivian Galloway, died suddenly yesterday in Morrisania Hospital, following a cerebral hemorrhage.

Born in Rushland, Pa., son of the late Aurelius and Martha (Carroll) Galloway, Mr. Galloway was a veteran of World War I.

Other survivors include: a son, Louis, Newtown; four sisters: Mrs. Sara Gordon, Newtown; Mrs. Mamie Jacobs, Mrs. Lillian Elmore, Mrs. Naomi Hopkins, this city; a brother, Albert, Newtown; eight nephews and four nieces.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday at two p. m. in Macedonia Baptist Church, Newtown, with the Rev. Earl Johnson, pastor, officiating. Interment will be made in Lincoln Heights Cemetery, Newtown.

RESCUE SQUAD CASES

Bucks County Rescue Squad had four cases over the week-end. The first was on Saturday evening, when Charles E. Hill, Ford and Newportville roads, Fergusonville, was transported to Abington Hospital. The other three occurred on Sunday. Mrs. Margaret Phillips, 930 Excelsior avenue, Croydon, was taken to Nazareth Hospital, Philadelphia. Later in the morning, Mrs. John Marchis, 99 Railroad avenue, Bristol, was also taken to Nazareth. Later that day, Mrs. Charlotte Gibbs, 703 Newportville road, Croydon, was transported to Abington Hospital.

AMBULANCE CASES

Bristol Blood Donors transported two cases over the week-end. One was on Saturday when Frank Capella, 424 Jefferson avenue, was returned to his home from Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia. The second was on Sunday evening. Earnest DePrimeo, 2610 E. Sumner street, Philadelphia, cut his right index finger on the township side of Silver Lake and was taken to Harriman Hospital, thence to Nazareth Hospital, Philadelphia, where he was detained for the necessary operation. The boy caught his finger in a car-door.

The cause of the strike is a jurisdictional dispute.

Evidence of the strike broke early this morning as men driving to report for work began making a return trip home. This greatly increased the traffic on main highways in both directions.

The men gathered in groups along the highways to discuss the latest of a series of strikes which have been occurring at the site of the plant.

Those on strike belong to Local 57 AFL Laborers Union and are employed by contractors building the huge steel plant.

A spokesman for the union asserted that the strike stemmed from charges that other AFL unions were doing jobs claimed by the laborers.

LIVELY ART

The battle between the traditionalists and the modernists in the field of art is not new. It has been proceeding for decades. Time, instead of softening the differences, seems to exacerbate them. The latest example of this truth is the bitter protest of a group of modern artists against the management of the Metropolitan Museum of Art of New York City.

Seven modernists, whose medium is abstract painting, "reject" a Metropolitan prize contest open to American artists on the ground that the Metropolitan management does not believe in what it is doing, refuses to take a responsible attitude toward modern American culture and, in fact, debases the artist.

This is a severe indictment, doubtless so drawn in the hope of scoring a point rather than in changing the rules of the forthcoming prize contest. The abstract painter is not modern in his intolerance for other artistic approaches. Most of all, he scorns "representational" painting—that is, painting that depicts undistorted still life, pleasant landscapes, even portraits that bear a resemblance to the sitters.

The abstractionist seems to make little allowance for the stunts, deliberate distortions and flights into design that so often conceal the painter's want of talent.

The last thing the abstractionists want, according to their public statement, is a "free-for-all contest," which "encourages mediocrity and does not lead to advancement of either art or culture."

Whatever the virtues or failings of the management of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, when art can arouse such rage, such contempt, it will strike most persons that American art is burgeoning with life.

THE NEW MODELS

With the ending of the steel strike, resumption of automobile production—now virtually at a standstill—is expected to be followed by almost immediate introduction of new models by at least one maker. Another company is expected to announce improved power-steering before the 1953 models start moving from the assembly lines.

That is the latest news from Detroit, and it indicates that regardless of hindrances and short-ages the automobile of 1953 will be an improvement on the 1952 model. It is this steady, year-by-year progress toward more economical and more reliable transportation that has made the American automobile what it is.

Americans expect their automobiles to be better each year than they were the year before. To meet this demand automobile manufacturers spend many millions of dollars each year for engineering research, experimentation and machinery to manufacture parts of new design.

ECHOES OF THE PAST

(By Courier Staff Member)

Review of the news as it appeared in the Bucks County Gazette issue dated at Bristol Mar. 17, 1904. The Gazette, a weekly newspaper published in Bristol, was discontinued following its merger with the Courier.

OXFORD VALLEY—The right-of-way is being obtained for a trolley line between Fox Chase and Trenton, to pass through this village. Whether it will materialize or not remains to be seen as this is the second attempt by the same party.

EMILIE—Public sales seem to predominate at present. Every day this week is booked in this vicinity and everyone seems to have a full attendance. Ellwood Richardson sold out on Monday and will make Bristol his future home. Mr. Prickett, on the Burton farm, sold out on Tuesday. David Beaton sold out on Wednesday. Mr. Beaton will farm the Bolton place the coming year.

TULLYTOWN—The machinery for the canning factory has arrived and will be in place by the end of this week all ready for the season's work. The farmers are taking quite an interest in the project and have promised to grow over 225 acres of tomatoes, sweet corn, beans, etc., for canning purposes.

A delegation of Jewish emigrants from Hamburg, Germany, with bales of baggage, arrived in Bristol yesterday.

During his three years' pastorate in Bristol Rev. Theodore Stevens, of the Methodist Church, has officiated at 135 funerals and 40 weddings.

At a recent church meeting held in Bethel A. M. E. Church the following were elected trustees for the year: George W. Fisher, Asher J. Conn, Isaac Freeman, Harry Northgate, Albert Roe, William McIlvaine, Eugene Tolson, Frank Massey and John S. Price.

Harry J. Arnold was tendered a birthday surprise party at his home, corner of Radcliffe and Mulberry streets, on Tuesday evening. The evening was spent in playing progressive euchre, after which luncheon was served. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Clifford L. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Minster, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. David, Mrs. M. LIVELY ART

The battle between the traditionalists and the modernists in the field of art is not new. It has been proceeding for decades. Time, instead of softening the differences, seems to exacerbate them. The latest example of this truth is the bitter protest of a group of modern artists against the management of the Metropolitan Museum of Art of New York City.

Seven modernists, whose medium is abstract painting, "reject" a Metropolitan prize contest open to American artists on the ground that the Metropolitan management does not believe in what it is doing, refuses to take a responsible attitude toward modern American culture and, in fact, debases the artist.

This is a severe indictment, doubtless so drawn in the hope of scoring a point rather than in changing the rules of the forthcoming prize contest. The abstract painter is not modern in his intolerance for other artistic approaches. Most of all, he scorns "representational" painting—that is, painting that depicts undistorted still life, pleasant landscapes, even portraits that bear a resemblance to the sitters.

The abstractionist seems to make little allowance for the stunts, deliberate distortions and flights into design that so often conceal the painter's want of talent.

The last thing the abstractionists want, according to their public statement, is a "free-for-all contest," which "encourages mediocrity and does not lead to advancement of either art or culture."

Whatever the virtues or failings of the management of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, when art can arouse such rage, such contempt, it will strike most persons that American art is burgeoning with life.

THE NEW MODELS

With the ending of the steel strike, resumption of automobile production—now virtually at a standstill—is expected to be followed by almost immediate introduction of new models by at least one maker. Another company is expected to announce improved power-steering before the 1953 models start moving from the assembly lines.

That is the latest news from Detroit, and it indicates that regardless of hindrances and short-rages the automobile of 1953 will be an improvement on the 1952 model. It is this steady, year-by-year progress toward more economical and more reliable transportation that has made the American automobile what it is.

Americans expect their automobiles to be better each year than they were the year before. To meet this demand automobile manufacturers spend many millions of dollars each year for engineering research, experimentation and machinery to manufacture parts of new design.

ECHOES OF THE PAST

(By Courier Staff Member)

Review of the news as it appeared in the Bucks County Gazette issue dated at Bristol Mar. 17, 1904. The Gazette, a weekly newspaper published in Bristol, was discontinued following its merger with the Courier.

OXFORD VALLEY—The right-of-way is being obtained for a trolley line between Fox Chase and Trenton, to pass through this village. Whether it will materialize or not remains to be seen as this is the second attempt by the same party.

EMILIE—Public sales seem to predominate at present. Every day this week is booked in this vicinity and everyone seems to have a full attendance. Ellwood Richardson sold out on Monday and will make Bristol his future home. Mr. Prickett, on the Burton farm, sold out on Tuesday. David Beaton sold out on Wednesday. Mr. Beaton will farm the Bolton place the coming year.

TULLYTOWN—The machinery for the canning factory has arrived and will be in place by the end of this week all ready for the season's work. The farmers are taking quite an interest in the project and have promised to grow over 225 acres of tomatoes, sweet corn, beans, etc., for canning purposes.

A delegation of Jewish emigrants from Hamburg, Germany, with bales of baggage, arrived in Bristol yesterday.

During his three years' pastorate in Bristol Rev. Theodore Stevens, of the Methodist Church, has officiated at 135 funerals and 40 weddings.

At a recent church meeting held in Bethel A. M. E. Church the following were elected trustees for the year: George W. Fisher, Asher J. Conn, Isaac Freeman, Harry Northgate, Albert Roe, William McIlvaine, Eugene Tolson, Frank Massey and John S. Price.

Harry J. Arnold was tendered a birthday surprise party at his home, corner of Radcliffe and Mulberry streets, on Tuesday evening. The evening was spent in playing progressive euchre, after which luncheon was served. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Clifford L. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Minster, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. David, Mrs. M. K. Baker, Miss Alice Johnson.

When summer came the kings of old
Had subjects fan them, we are told

NOW MORE THAN 8000 MEN AND WOMEN HERE
HELP COOL YOU... WITH ELECTRICITY

To bring cool comfort to the king was a mighty hot job in olden days, requiring many men and much money! Today, everyone can command a cooling performance from electricity... one that's far more efficient than the old hand-powered kind. Here is another example of how electricity makes every home a better place, thanks to a score of electrical servants. Maintaining this service—on a 24-hour, uninterrupted schedule—requires the vast resources of Philadelphia Electric and the services of the more than 8000 men and women who make up this organization.

Electricity is still one of the lowest priced necessities in the family budget.

Miss Marian J. Harmsen and R. J. Longenecker Wed Here

Miss Marian Jeannette Harmsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harmsen, Edgely, and Mr. Robert Jones Longenecker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Longenecker, Havertown, were united in marriage at two o'clock p. m., Saturday, in Bristol Presbyterian Church by the Rev. Edward G. Yeomans. A large company of relatives and friends was in attendance at the double ring ceremony.

The edifice was attractively decorated with a background of cichodum, white gladioli, chrysanthemums and candlelight. The pews were decorated with white aisle bouquets.

Mr. Horace M. Hutchinson rendered organ selections and served as accompanist for Miss Jean Stetson, who sang "Because," "Through the Years," and during the ceremony, "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, who gave her in marriage, presented a charming appearance in a white gown, the bodice being fashioned of imported Chantilly lace over satin, featuring a scalloped V neckline, empress collar and long pointed sleeves. The bouffant skirt of scalloped lace ended in a nylon tulle chapel train. Her chapel length veil of silk illusion fell from a matching lace cap, trimmed with seed pearls. Slippers were of white satin and her only adornment of jewelry was a small cameo pin once belonging to her mother. She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis with white orchid center.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Vivian Hartenbach, of Monaca. She wore a floor-length gown of aqua tulle over taffeta, with midriff of lace, full skirt. The gown was strapless, over which she wore a fitted lace jacket with cap sleeves and small pointed collar. Mitts and head-dress were of matching tulle. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Fred Weik, Jr., Bristol, and Miss Jane Longenecker, Havertown, sister of the bridegroom, were similarly gowned in pink. Each attendant carried a cascade of pink roses and baby breath.

Mr. John M. Longenecker, Springfield, served his brother as best man. Ushers were: Messrs. G. Stratton Foehl, Springfield, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; David W. Ludwig, Pittsburgh; G. H. Ed-ward, Walden, Ridley Park; and Richard Kisner, Havertown.

Mrs. Harmsen, mother of the bride, selected for the occasion a lace dress of dusty rose over pink taffeta with matching mitts, pink straw hat, beige accessories and orchid corsage. Mrs. Longenecker, mother of the bridegroom, chose an ensemble of powder blue lace, blue leather hat, beige accessories and orchid corsage.

The bride, upon leaving the church, was presented with a ribbon horseshoe by the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Alfred Jones. This token was made by a cousin in Australia, and is a symbol used in that country for wishing the bride good luck in the future years.

Following a reception at the Stacy-Trent Hotel, Trenton, N. J., the newlyweds left for a honeymoon trip to Virginia Beach, Va. The bride's travelling costume consisted of a two-piece suit dress of toast color, natural tone accessories and the orchid from her wedding bouquet. She is a graduate of Penna. State College and Penna. Hospital, Philadelphia, in medical technology, and is a member of Kappa Delta Sorority. The bridegroom is also a graduate of Penna. State College in ceramic engineering, and is a member of Alpha Chi Sigma Fraternity. Upon returning from their honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Longenecker will reside at Worcester, Mass., where Mr. Longenecker is presently employed with the Norton Co.

and make it 6 in a row. This should be a game worth seeing and a good crowd is expected to witness this game at Delhaas Jr. high school field, Tuesday, July 22nd, at 6.30 o'clock.

GIANTS WIN FIRST

The Giants won the first half championship of the Bristol Boys League by winning a forfeit game from the Hawks yesterday. The Hawks could not field a full team as the umpires awarded the game to the Giants. An exhibition game was played with the Hawks using an outside player. The Giants won this game, 11-9.

Say Presidential Nomination Will Be A Long Struggle

"The gentlemanly Georgian showed unmistakable anger in charging that the Kefauver and Harriman forces were trying to unseat the temporarily accredited Texas delegation, which is supporting him, in a 'reprisal' against his denunciation of big city bosses.

Russell added: "I do not believe the Democratic party . . . will ever stand by and see such an atrocity perpetrated in any national convention."

The Democratic faithful assembled in the huge amphitheatre hard by the stock yards includes 1,576 delegates, for a total of 1,230 nominating votes, with 616 necessary for nomination.

In the wide open race, 17 probable candidates have been able to muster a total of 725½ pledged delegates but more than 500 delegates are uncommitted.

Besides Kefauver—the leader in pledged delegates, Barkley, Russell, and Harriman, the men actively seeking the nomination include Sen. Kerr of Oklahoma and Sen. McMahon of Connecticut, and there is a virtual mass of favorite sons and other dark horses hoping for a miracle.

Obviously, President Truman will be an important factor in the mad scramble which began when, last April, he announced with seeming ironclad firmness that he would not be a candidate.

Mr. Truman's vote as a Missouri delegate-at-large will be cast by his alternate, Tom Gavin of Kansas City, who has resisted all attempts to persuade disclosure of the instructions he says he has received from the President.

But Missouri National Committeeman John J. Mangle said the delegation may spurn the President's choice unless it should be Stevenson.

The Stevenson situation sharpened late yesterday after a closed caucus of the Illinois delegation when former Senate Majority Leader Scott Lucas asserted that "95 per cent" of the members would vote for the Governor on the first ballot.

Walter Johnson, co-chairman of the Stevenson-for-President movement, said that Stevenson had his "last opportunity" at the caucus to announce unshakable refusal to accept a draft. Johnson added: "He did not say, nor imply, that he would refuse the call of the convention to lead the Democratic party this fall."

Later in the sweltering night a majority of the 70-vote Pennsylvania delegation, including its top leaders, informally declared for Stevenson. Among the Keystone Staters plumping for the reluctant Illinoisan were National Committeeman David L. Lawrence, National Committeewoman Emma Guffey Miller, and State Chairman Morris Splain.

Regardless of these developments, the avowed aspirants unanimously declared their confidence of victory, and none was more emphatic than the 74-year-old Barkley.

The "Veep" said he had "heard rumors" that Mr. Truman would support him on the first ballot and back him all the way.

Barkley, however, was adamant in his opposition to the "loyalty oath" plan reported to have been initiated by the Harriman group with White House blessing.

Jack Weaver pitched the Comets to their 6th win in 7 starts by downing Hilltop, 4 to 2, at the Comets' home field, the Delhaas Jr. high school. Weaver allowed 7 scattered hits, of which four went to Hilltop's catcher, Bader, who had a double, triple, and 2 singles, to drive in both of Hilltop's runs, one in the first inning and one in the 9th.

After the first inning Weaver didn't allow any runs until the ninth, when he lost control and gave up 2 walks. With men on 1st and 2nd, Bader hit a single to left field. Harry Saul fielded the ball and threw a perfect strike home to Joe Domonick to cut off Porkie Oliver at the plate, but shortstop Loller singled home Guthrie who had walked. Pinch hitter Jenks and first baseman Bristol fled out to Dutch Holgate who looked good in center field for the Comets. Reds Condit, the Comets' first baseman, was the big gun for the victors, having 3 hits for 4 times at bat, driving in one run and scoring twice, being driven in on a single by Hedricks in the fifth and squeezed in by Hedricks in the seventh.

Bill Moll and Joe Domonick both came through for the Comets with 2 for 3, while Jack Weaver laid down a perfect bunt to help his own cause. The Comets meet Newtown at home on July 22nd. Manager Tony Rudy plans to use three pitchers to win this game. Newtown is the only team in the Tri-County League who the Comets haven't beaten this season, having dropped 3 one-run decisions, 9 to 8, 3 to 2, 2 to 1. The Comets are determined to break this Newtown jinx and also continue their winning streak.

Stevenson situation sharpened late yesterday after a closed caucus of the Illinois delegation when former Senate Majority Leader Scott Lucas asserted that "95 per cent" of the members would vote for the Governor on the first ballot.

Walter Johnson, co-chairman of the Stevenson-for-President movement, said that Stevenson had his "last opportunity" at the caucus to announce unshakable refusal to accept a draft. Johnson added: "He did not say, nor imply, that he would refuse the call of the convention to lead the Democratic party this fall."

Later in the sweltering night a majority of the 70-vote Pennsylvania delegation, including its top leaders, informally declared for Stevenson. Among the Keystone
